SMART TRAVELS PRODUCTION TEAM BIO

For 20 years, Small World Productions has produced substantial, content-driven travel series for public television. The Seattle-based company has produced more than 130 half-hour episodes and three pledge specials that are popular with public television programmers and viewers. This body of work translates into nearly 160 home video and DVD titles. SWP production credits include: Smart Travels—Europe with Rudy Maxa Series I, II, III and IV; Travels in Europe with Rick Steves Series I, II, III and IV; Travels in Mexico and the Caribbean with Shari Belafonte; America's Historic Trails with Tom Bodett; Best Travels in Europe and Best of the Mediterranean. SWP programs have helped to raise tens-of-millions of dollars in viewer contributions to public television stations. Small World's awards include CINE Golden Eagles, national Telly Awards, International Communicator Awards and Columbus International Film Festival Awards.

SWP partners Patricia Larson, Sandra Nisbet and John Givens created the series Smart Travels—Europe with Rudy Maxa. In addition to their body of work with SWP, Ms. Larson and Ms. Nisbet have advanced degrees in theater, and an extensive background in history, play-writing, international travel and college teaching. CEO Givens, the series executive producer, edits five episodes in each series. He has been producing, directing and editing public television programs for more than 35 years.

For Smart Travels, Small World is joined by a team of award-winning photographers, editors and producer/writers. Producer Patty Conroy has won several Telly Awards and four CINE Golden Eagles for her work with Small World, the Boeing Company and the University of Washington. Producer Susan McNally is a Seattle based producer/ writer/ director and winner of several Telly Awards and two CINE Golden Eagles. A Smart Travels Series III episode produced by Ms. McNally was a finalist in the New York Film Festival. Award-winning photographer Tom Speer of Seattle has shot more than 100 travel episodes for Small World. His other national credits include The Miracle Planet, Fire on the Rim, Death: The Trip of a Lifetime, Bill Nye the Science Guy, The Frugal Gourmet and The NewsHour. Mr. Ris has edited more than five dozen travel episodes for SWP, including Telly and CINE Award winners.

CUTTING-EDGE DIGITAL TELEVISION:
Smart Travels Series IV
continues Public Television's First HDTV series

On April 2, 2005, Small World Productions, KCTS/Seattle and American Public Television will release 13 new episodes of Smart Travels—Europe with Rudy Maxa, continuing public television's first high-definition television series. All 52 programs in the series were photographed and edited in Sony's 1080i HDCam format. The result is a visually stunning, cutting-edge, digital television series.

APT, American Public Television of Boston, will feed Smart Travels IV on the HD satellite transponder to public TV stations nationwide. Many stations will broadcast the series in both HDTV and NTSC, or standard television. The NTSC version will be "letterboxed" to show the wide-screen images of the HDTV production. "Viewers watching in NTSC will see images that are noticeably brighter and clearer than they'd expect," according to series executive producer John Givens of Small World Productions. Digitally mastered stereo audio is featured on both the HDTV and NTSC versions of the series.

"Best of all, the stunning beauty of Europe and the luscious detail of HDTV are a ready-made match, sure to be a hit with public television programmers and viewers for years to come," according to Givens. Public radio's original Savvy Traveler,™ Rudy Maxa, hosts Smart Travels—Europe.

More than 175 public television stations are now broadcasting in HDTV while they continue to transmit in standard-definition NTSC as well. All TV stations will be required to convert to HDTV digital transmitters within the next few years. APT also distributes the standard-definition version of Smart Travels nationally. Major corporate support for production and distribution of Smart Travels is provided by Expedia.com, the world's largest on-line travel company.

HDTV is the wide-screen, digital television standard adopted by the FCC several years ago. It provides brilliant images and incredible detail with nearly four times the resolution of standard television. HDTV is the first major revision of television's transmission format since its inception in the 1940s. For many viewers, the change from NTSC to HDTV will be as dramatic as the change from black and white to color in the 60s.

Six DVDs and six VHS home videos of the series are available from Small World. Two or three geographically related episodes are combined on each 60 or 90-minute tape. DVDs are 100+ minutes and include extra-value bonuses and consumer travel advice from series host Rudy Maxa. DVDs and home videos may be ordered by calling 800.866.7425 or online at www.SmartTravels.tv. Smart Travels—Europe V—in HD, of course—is in the works and seeking corporate underwriting.

How can you be part of the international jet set and still get a taste of "old" Europe? This time Smart Travels takes viewers on a whirlwind tour of four cities that represent a bit of the old and bit of the new in Europe. Rudy shows viewer how to get the most out of one-day visits to Copenhagen, Berlin, Munich, and Rome. TIPS ON MAXIMIZING TRAVEL MEMORIES FROM A 24-HOUR STAY IN A EUROPEAN BIG CITY.

#412 EUROPE JUST FOR FUN

As today's travelers replace the old "once-in-a-lifetime" European tour with multiple trips, many look for another dimension in travel. Some are ready for a break from museums and historical sights in favor of a trip—or a day—just for fun. So, here's where Rudy shares his personal picks of fun and games. Whether it's hot-air-ballooning, mountain luge rides, golf, puppetry, amusement parks, country mazes, hiking, or just lazing on a sunny beach, there's plenty of adventure to be found in Europe. And of course, this R&R comes well spiced with memorable meals and local libations. Here's Rudy's take on Europe Just For Fun.

#413 A MUSIC LOVER'S EUROPE

For a totally different view of Europe, Rudy shows smart travelers how to organize a trip around a theme. Rudy discovers surprising and fresh takes on Europe as he sets out on a music lover's tour. Winning, live performances by the Sicilian folk band Diascouri, and by Gruppo Emiliano, a zany, classically-trained quartet from Emilia Romagna, are the backbone of this offbeat trip. But performance is just the start. Rudy visits folkdance groups in Greece, Sweden and Norway and delights in the classics in Italy and Austria. And everywhere, the music provides a backdrop for enthralling local scenery and engaging local stories. TIPS ON ORGANIZING A TRIP AROUND A THEME.
